As a resident of the local community in San Diego I want to help save KLOVE radio station. The station not only plays great music but appeals to a wide variety of listeners. I dont have to worry about the commentary and if my children hear what is being said. If KLOVE were to be discontinued I would be very disappointed and miss the wonderful music and DJs and all the people who are a part of the station.